Carolina Law

Where Research and Scholarship Flourish

Now entering its 175th year, Carolina Law is home to a vibrant intellectual community.

Our dynamic faculty includes experts on a broad range of topics. They not only publish scholarship that advances the academic conversation in their respective disciplines, but their research also has real-world impact.

Frequently cited by courts (including the U.S. Supreme Court), our faculty's research has also prompted policy makers to propose legislative reforms, and it has helped shape the public debate about the law and its place in our society.

As a great public law school, Carolina Law will continue to make significant legal and policy contributions, such as those contained in this report. I look forward to sharing more of our faculty's ambitious work in the future.
