

MORRIS R. GELBLUM STUDENT LOAN FUND APPLICATION

Short-term loans are available to UNC Law students who have unexpected expenses related to attendance at the University of North Carolina. Ordinarily an Emergency Loan cannot exceed six hundred dollars ($600.00) and repayment is expected on the last day of the third month following the loan date. Under certain circumstances, the period of repayment may be extended if requested by the student prior to the due date. A late fee of $3.00/month will be assessed for a loan not repaid by the date. Failure to repay a loan before the due date, without appropriate extension granted, may mean denial of future emergency loans. Failure to repay a loan will forfeit a student's eligibility to enroll for further courses in law school or to receive a certificate of degree.
