PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Law

Chapel Hill, NC

Associate Professor of Law (with tenure)

July 2015 - present

Assistant Professor of Law

July 2009 - July 2015

Courses Taught: Civil Legal Assistance Clinic, Civil Lawyering Process, Legal Ethics and Social Justice, and Employment Discrimination. Clinic seminar uses readings, exercises, simulation, discussion, and case rounds to help students build problem-solving skills and develop their professional identities as lawyers. In their casework, clinic students provide advice, counsel, and full representation to tenants and workers seeking racial, economic, and gender justice. Students also support advocacy projects of local and national organizations. Litigation and advocacy projects address eviction, substandard housing conditions, housing discrimination, employment discrimination, unpaid wages, and unemployment benefits.
