New Student Orientation
2023
Welcome Guide

UNC School of Law
Values
Justice
Public Service
This resource guide contains helpful links and information to start you on the way to a positive law school experience. More comprehensive information will be shared during Orientation. If you have questions, please contact a member of the Student Development Office.

*Note: This guide is intended as an introduction to student life and campus resources. Academic policies and career development information will be shared from other sources.

Table of Contents

I. WELCOME to UNC School of Law
   - Orientation ................................................................. 3
     - Orientation Mission Statement .................................. 3
   - Law School Resources ............................................. 4
     - Student Development Office .................................. 4
     - Dean’s Fellows ..................................................... 4
     - MyCarolinaLaw .................................................... 4
   - Preparing for Law School ....................................... 5
     - Class Schedule ..................................................... 5
     - Books ................................................................ 5
     - Dress Code/Expectations ....................................... 5
     - Academic Calendar .............................................. 5
     - UNC One Card .................................................... 6
   - Getting Involved .................................................. 6
     - Student Organizations ......................................... 6
     - Pro Bono .............................................................. 6
     - Curricular Activities ............................................ 6
     - Clinic and Externship .......................................... 7
   - Exams, Assessments, and Grades .......................... 7
     - Exams .................................................................. 7
     - Practice Exams .................................................... 7
     - Academic Policies ............................................... 7
     - Honor Code ........................................................ 7
   - Resources for Students with Disabilities ................. 8
     - Accommodations .................................................. 8
Peer Resources .................................................................................................................................................................................. 8
Parking ........................................................................................................................................................................................................... 9

VII. Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Violence, Interpersonal (relationship) Violence, and Stalking .................................................................................................................................................................................. 9

Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office .................................................................................................................................................. 9
Seeking Medical Attention ........................................................................................................................................................................... 9
Reporting the Incident to the University .......................................................................................................................................................... 9
Seeking Confidential Support ......................................................................................................................................................................... 10
Contacting Law Enforcement ........................................................................................................................................................................ 10

VIII. Health and Wellness .............................................................................................................................................................................. 10

Campus Mental Health Resources .................................................................................................................................................................. 10
Law School Mental Health Resources .......................................................................................................................................................... 11
Campus Health .................................................................................................................................................................................................... 11
Immunizations ...................................................................................................................................................................................................... 11
Mandatory Student Health Insurance ............................................................................................................................................................... 11
Dental Care ........................................................................................................................................................................................................ 12

IX. Financial Resources .................................................................................................................................................................................... 12

Paying for Law School ................................................................................................................................................................................... 12
Working and Law School .............................................................................................................................................................................. 13
Gelbum Loans ................................................................................................................................................................................................ 13
Professional Clothing .................................................................................................................................................................................................. 13

X. Cultural Wellbeing and Belonging ............................................................................................................................................................... 13

Law School Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Resources .................................................................................................................................................. 13
Campus Organizations and Centers .............................................................................................................................................................. 13
Faith-Based Organizations and Centers .......................................................................................................................................................... 14

XI. Campus Amenities ................................................................................................................................................................................................... 14

Campus Recreation ........................................................................................................................................................................................................ 14
Libraries and Study Places .................................................................................................................................................................................. 14
Sporting Events .................................................................................................................................................................................................... 14
Arts .................................................................................................................................................................................................................. 14
Carolina Union ...................................................................................................................................................................................................... 15
I. WELCOME to UNC School of Law

Orientation

Orientation will take place in person beginning Monday, August 14th. There will be 3 full days of orientation (Monday – Wednesday) and a mandatory service day on Thursday, August 17th from 8:00am – 2:00pm. The week wraps up Friday with a Resource Fair (10:30am-12pm) followed by the Student Bar Association Welcome BBQ (12-2pm). More information about all events will be shared via email. Dress for Orientation is business casual.

Orientation Mission Statement

To welcome all students to the UNC Law community, prepare all students for success, and introduce students to the resources that will help them throughout their academic and professional journey. You belong here!

Orientation is based on 3 foundational pillars:

COMMUNITY     ACADEMICS     RESOURCES

Community

• Meet your classmates
• Meet upper-level law students - Dean's Fellows
• Meet your First Year Faculty
• Learning about Professional Identity Formation & Civil Discourse
• Service Day
• Learning about bias, cross-cultural competency, and racism

Academics

• Reading and analyzing cases
• Demystifying Socratic Classrooms
• Professional Identity Development & Civil Discourse
• Meet your First Year Faculty

Resources
• Office of Academic Excellence
• Office of Student Services - well-being, counseling services, physical health, ADA accommodations
• Office of Diversity, Inclusion & Affinity
• Financial Aid
• ADA Accommodations
• Law Library
• IT Department
• International Programs
• Student Organizations & Affinity Groups

II. Law School Resources

Student Development Office

Not sure where to go? Start with SDO!
The Student Development Office is available for questions or concerns related to life as a law student, accommodations for disabilities and personal needs, student organizations, and helping direct you to other resources. You may contact any member of the Student Development Office with your needs:

• Bianca Mack (she/her), Associate Dean for Equity, Admissions, and Student Affairs
• Lucinda Gardner (she/her), Director of Student Services
• Emily Shuman (she/her), Business Services Coordinator

Dean’s Fellows

Dean’s Fellows are mentors available to first year and transfer students to help with your transition to UNC School of Law. Dean’s Fellows play a large role in Orientation but are available as a resource throughout the year. You will meet your assigned group of Dean’s Fellows at Orientation, but you should also feel comfortable reaching out to other Dean’s Fellows with whom you share interests or experiences.

MyCarolinaLaw

my.law.unc.edu has a wealth of resources specific to UNC School of Law including a law school event calendar, photo directory, and more.
To access MyCarolinaLaw, UNC email, and all internal UNC sites, students must register for an onyen (“only name you’ll ever need”).

III. Preparing for Law School

Class Schedule

Class schedules are set for all first-year law students, and there is not an opportunity to select your courses or professors.

Class schedules generally become available in early August, and you will be able to access your schedule on ConnectCarolina.

Books

Books are available for purchase and for rent at UNC Student Stores and a variety of other retailers. Some faculty members will allow e-books. Some classes may have course packs that will be available at student stores. Additionally, there may be books in the locker area that have been left behind or donated that you are welcome to take.

Supplements and study aids: Many professors recommend not purchasing or using commercial study guides or supplemental materials until you can learn how to prepare for class without them. If you are interested in exploring these materials, they are available for use and checkout in the Writing Learning and Resources Center (WLRC) and the law library.

Dress Code/Expectations

There is no dress code for students at Carolina Law. However, there will be certain events throughout the year that will require students to dress professionally, including directory photos, networking events, interviews for summer placements, etc. It is recommended that law students have a suit to wear for these professional events. Students who need financial assistance developing their professional wardrobes will have an opportunity to participate in our free Carolina Law Boutique event during the school year.

Academic Calendar

The Academic Calendar is available on the UNC School of Law website (a public facing webpage separate from MyCarolinaLaw). 1Ls should take note of Practice Exams scheduled for Friday October 13, and fall exams scheduled for 12/4, 12/8, and 12/13. Wellness days and holiday breaks are also designated on the calendar.
UNC One Card

Your UNC OneCard is a multipurpose student ID that serves as a card for the library, building access, printing, and access to campus events.

It is recommended that you obtain your OneCard through the online process. Be aware that you must upload a photo that meets these requirements as part of the OneCard online setup process. If you complete the online process by Monday July 31st, you will receive your card during Orientation.

You may also receive your OneCard in person on the 3rd Floor of Student Stores. Open Monday-Friday, 8am-4:30pm. Call (919) 962-8024 with questions.

IV. Getting Involved

Student Organizations

UNC Law has a wide variety of active student organizations to provide you with practical experience and professional development, and to build community. Information on some organizations can be found here. If you have questions about a student organization that’s not listed on the website, contact a member of the Student Development team.

A Student Organization Fair will be held shortly after classes begin to allow you to connect and join organization listservs.

For those interested in exploring student organizations beyond the law school, HeelLife has a searchable database of organizations campus wide.

Pro Bono

Pro bono work is volunteer work that uses professional skills to provide services to those who are unable to afford them. Pro bono opportunities are open to all students on a first-come first-served basis, and opportunities are shared via weekly emails, through Sakai, and in student organizations.

The Pro Bono Student Handbook answers many questions about what counts as pro bono and how to log hours.

Curricular Activities

Participation in Broun National Trial Team, Holderness Moot Court, and law journals occurs during the 2L and 3L years, with try-outs during the Spring of 1L year.
The Joint Journal Competition is typically held the week after Spring semester final exams.

These activities are credit-bearing for students participating for two years.

Clinic and Externship

Clinics are an opportunity for students to earn academic credit while providing legal assistance to clients in need. Enrollment in clinics is based on a lottery system and is for 2L and 3L students only.

Externships provide an opportunity for 2L and 3L students to receive academic credit for on-site work with a partner placement site for a set number of hours per week in addition to class and journal requirements at the law school. The externship program also offers opportunities for students the summer following their 1L year.

V. Exams, Assessments, and Grades

Exams

Exam schedules are available online.

Most first-year law school courses have only 1 exam, though some faculty members may have additional assessments during the semester. There is no exam in RRWA, and grades are based on assignments.

Practice Exams

Practice exams will be given in first-year classes on Friday, October 13th. This is an opportunity to experience the exam environment, practice with testing software, and get un-graded feedback on your work.

Academic Policies

Academic policies regarding attendance, grades, graduation requirements, and more are available on the law school website.

Honor Code

The Honor Code prohibits academic misconduct, which includes plagiarism, falsification, fabrication, or misrepresentation of data, information or citations; unauthorized assistance or collaboration on academic work; cheating; deliberately furnishing false information; forging, falsifying, or misusing University documents or other resources; violating University policies relating to academic integrity; and assisting or aiding another to engage in prohibited acts of academic dishonesty.

Each student must submit written work with a pledge that the student has neither given nor received unauthorized aid on the assignment. On anonymous assessments, students “sign” the pledge using the student’s PID number, and our exam-taking software automatically generates the pledge.

VI. Resources for Students with Disabilities

UNC-Chapel Hill facilitates the implementation of reasonable accommodations in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), including resources and services for students with difficulties accessing learning opportunities resulting from chronic or temporary disability, chronic medical conditions, severe illness or injury, or pregnancy. Accommodations are determined through the Office of Accessibility Resources and Service (ARS) for individuals with documented qualifying disabilities in accordance with applicable state and federal laws.

Relevant policy documents as they relate to registration and accommodations determinations and the student registration form are available on the ARS website.

Accommodations

Applying for Accommodations: Applications are made through ARS. The first step in the process is to complete the Self-Identification Form and Document Upload on the ARS website. You may apply at any time after you are accepted for admission. It is in your best interest to submit paperwork as soon as possible so that accommodations will be approved before any assessments occur.

Students are encouraged to send as much documentation as possible to ARS, as this documentation will be used both for law school accommodations and for the bar exam accommodation process as well.

Implementation of Accommodations: The Student Development Office works with students to implement and manage accommodations approved by ARS. If you have questions about your accommodations, please contact a member of the Student Development Team.

Peer Resources

UNC School of Law students have created a helpful unofficial guide to accommodations that may provide comfort and advice.
Students seeking accommodations related to their neurodiversity may be interested in the newly formed Neurodiverse Law Students Association. For more information, contact Karah Francois.

Parking

Accessible parking is not managed through the same process as learning and testing accommodations. Please refer to the Accessible Parking section above.

VII. Sexual and Gender-Based Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Violence, Interpersonal (relationship) Violence, and Stalking

Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office

UNC-Chapel Hill's Equal Opportunity and Compliance office coordinates the campus response to acts of discrimination, harassment, interpersonal violence, sexual violence, sexual exploitation, stalking, and related retaliation.

Seeking Medical Attention

If you have experienced physical or sexual violence, go to Campus Health Services or the Emergency Department at UNC Hospitals for evidence collection, treatment of injuries, and medication for sexually transmitted infections and pregnancy prevention. Forensic exams can be obtained for up to 5 days after an assault. Financial assistance may be available through the Survivor’s Assistance Fund.

Campus Health: campushealth.unc.edu | 919-966-2281

Emergency Department at UNC Hospitals: med.unc.edu/emergmed | 919-966-4721

Reporting the Incident to the University

Reporting the incident allows the University to provide supportive measures, such as academic accommodations and changes to class or work schedules. It also allows you to explore options for formally addressing the incident within the University’s process. You’re encouraged to report to the Report and Response Coordinators and/or the Title IX Coordinator in the Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office. You can call, email, or file a report online.

Report and Response Coordinators: reportandresponse@unc.edu, 919-966-3576
Title IX Compliance Coordinator: titleixcoordinator@unc.edu, 919-966-3576

Seeking Confidential Support

Confidential emotional and psychological support can be obtained at any time and is not a report to the university.

Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS): caps.unc.edu | 919-966-3658 (24 hours)

Gender Violence Services Coordinators: gvsc.unc.edu | 919-962-1343

University Ombuds Office: ombuds.unc.edu | 919-843-8204

Orange County Rape Crisis Center: ocrcc.org | 866-WE-LISTEN (866-935-4783) (24-hour hotline)

Compass Center for Women and Families: compassctr.org | 919-929-7122 (24-hour hotline).

988 Lifeline: https://988lifeline.org/ | 988 (24/7 hotline)

Contacting Law Enforcement

For emergencies requiring an immediate response, dial 911 to contact local law enforcement. If you call 911 on campus, the UNC Police Department will respond.

For non-emergency situations, call local law enforcement or UNC Police’s non-emergency number (919-962-8100) and ask to speak with an investigator. UNC Police will inform the necessary University staff of the incident.

---

VIII. Health and Wellness

Campus Mental Health Resources

Care.unc.edu is a hub for resources, peer support, and trainings.
Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS): Provides services to students across campus through brief therapy, group therapy, crisis intervention, medication management, and more. Located in the James Taylor Student Health building at 320 Emergency Room Drive. CAPS 24/7 by phone: (919)966-3658

Law School Mental Health Resources

Tora Taylor-Glover (919.966.3658) is the law school’s embedded counselor from CAPS. Taylor-Glover provides one-on-one counseling for law students and works on wellness initiatives.

BarCARES (919.929.1227 or 1.800.640.0735): Confidential, short-term intervention provided cost-free to law students for issues related to personal life, family, work, and school. The program is funded by the NC Bar Association, local bar groups, and law schools, but identifying information about program users is not shared with any of these groups.

Lawyers Assistance Program (LAP) (919.719.9267): A service of the NC State Bar providing free confidential assistance to lawyers, judges, and law students regarding mental health challenges, including problems with drugs or alcohol, and other life stresses which impair or may impair an attorney’s ability to effectively practice law.

Campus Health

Campus Health provides a variety of services to meet student healthcare needs. Many of the main services at Campus Health are already paid for with the Campus Health Fee, included in your fees/tuition each semester. More details on charges covered can be found here. Appointments are needed for non-urgent care and may be scheduled online or by phone at 919.966.2281.

Campus Health is located in the James A. Taylor building between Kenan Stadium and UNC Hospitals, just south of the Bell Tower Parking Lot. Parking is available with a parking pass that you may print in advance or obtain at check-in.

Immunizations

Per state law, new students must provide documentation of immunization records to meet matriculation requirements. Information about required immunizations can be found here.

Mandatory Student Health Insurance

Most eligible students enrolled in the UNC System Colleges and Universities are required to have health insurance coverage. Each semester, a student health insurance premium is added to all eligible students’ University accounts. Students must enroll to activate their insurance or complete the online waiver process with their own creditable insurance coverage before the deadline each semester (Fall- Sept 11 and Spring- Jan 31). Once the waiver is verified and approved, the premium will be removed from the student’s account. More information about student insurance plans and the waiver requirement can be found here.

Dental Care

Comprehensive dental services are now available through the Campus-Smiles Dental Office located in Campus Health. Dental services are not covered by student fees, but most major insurance plans are accepted. Students are eligible for custom dental insurance to cover dental procedures.

IX. Financial Resources

Paying for Law School

Fall Semester Bills: Bills are generated in mid-July and due in mid-August. To view your billing statement, log on to ConnectCarolina, select PayBills/Manage Student Finances, and View Statements in the new window. (Make sure your pop-up blocker is off.) 2-Step for Duo must be set up to access this tab.

Paying your Bill: There are several payment options, but many students find that making an online payment through ConnectCarolina is the most convenient.

If you are using financial aid for the entire bill, you must defer your charges. If you are using financial aid to pay part of the bill, pay the balance by the original due date and defer the remainder. Financial aid will credit your Student Account during in-person Orientation week and automatically pay tuition and fees. If you want to take the unsubsidized loan, you must accept it through the Take Action on Loan Offers link in ConnectCarolina; if you want to take the Graduate PLUS loan, you must complete the application.

Refunds: If your aid exceeds your Student Account charges, the remainder will be refunded to you. You need to enroll in direct deposit refund before your refund can be accessible in your bank account 3-5 business days after aid credits your Student Account.

Prior Loans: If you have student loans from earlier education, we will automatically submit your law school enrollment information in September. Loan servicers and providers will be able to see your student status then, so they will not need the In-School Deferment form.

Reducing Debt: The easiest way to reduce future loan debt is to not take your maximum loan eligibility – only borrow what you need. If you decide that your budget can support a lower loan amount, you can reduce your loan through the Take Action on Loan Offers link in ConnectCarolina before mid-August. Reduce the Graduate PLUS loan first; it has a higher interest rate than the unsubsidized loan. After mid-August, contact Missy Vetrano about reducing your loan.

Additional Questions: Contact Missy Vetrano, Director of Financial Aid

Working and Law School

There are no rules or restrictions related to student employment outside of law school, but students are discouraged from seeking employment that may interfere with their academic performance. If you have questions about working as a law student, ask a member of the Student Development Office or Missy Vetrano.

Gelbum Loans

An emergency loan fund exists to assist students with temporary financial hardship. Students should contact Cindi Gardner for more details.

X. Cultural Wellbeing and Belonging

Law School Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Resources

UNC Law is committed to promoting a positive and inclusive environment for all members of the Law School community. You can find more information about DEI resources including a selection of Law School Diverse Student Affinity Groups, information about the DEI committee, and campus wide resources here.

Campus Organizations and Centers

Carolina American Indian Center

Carolina Asian American Center

Carolina Latinx Center
Carolina Veterans Resource Center
Carolina Women’s Center
LGBTQ Center
Sonja Hanes Stone Center for Black Culture and History
University Office of Diversity and Inclusion
Black Graduate and Professional Student Association
First Nations Graduate Circle

Faith-Based Organizations and Centers

The Graduate and Professional Student Federation provides a list of suggestions for places of worship.

Students may seek religious connections on campus as well, including but not limited to UNC Hillel, UNC Muslim Student Association, Newman Catholic Community, the NC Study Center, and more. A complete list of faith-based student organizations can be found on Heel Life.

XI. Campus Amenities

Campus Recreation

Student access to Campus Recreation facilities and programs are included in student fees. Facility hours and program information are available on their website. Many law students enjoy signing up for intramural sports as individuals and with teams of law students.

Libraries and Study Places

There are many libraries available on campus for those wanting to study outside of the law school.

Sporting Events

Student access to UNC athletic events except football and men’s basketball is available by showing your UNC OneCard. Sports schedules are available at goheels.com. Football and men’s basketball tickets are through a lottery system. Tickets are covered by student fees and are available at no additional cost.

Arts
There are several options for exploring the arts on campus. Admission is free to the Ackland Art Museum. The UNC Music Department offers free performances throughout the year. Performances held by Carolina Performing Arts and Playmakers Repertory Company require the purchase of a ticket, but many events have student pricing available.

Carolina Union

The Carolina Union offers study and recreational space, dining options, and a variety of programs and events that are free to students. The Union is located on South Rd. across from the Student Rec Center.

Carolina Student Legal Services

Carolina Student Legal Services is funded by student fees to provide free legal services for full time students. Services are confidential. Schedule an appointment at (919)962-1303 or csls@unc.edu.

XII. Law School IT Resources

The School of Law IT department has a website for connecting you with the technology tools you will need on campus or studying from home, including how to access Zoom and class materials via Canvas and Sakai, laptop requirements for all students, and more details about the topics listed below.

Onyen

To access MyCarolinaLaw, UNC email, and all internal UNC sites, students must register for an onyen (“only name you’ll ever need”).

Wi-Fi

Access on campus is through the eduroam system.

Printing

Law students have $80 in printing credits per semester ($.10 per page)

- $40 is allocated from the law school and can be used on the “Law School Queue” in the Upper Rotunda and Rumpus Room
- $40 is allocated through the Carolina Print Hub (formerly CCI Printing) on main campus. CCI printers are on the 4th floor of the law library.
More information is available on the Law library website.

Additional IT help

- FAQ documents are available on MyCarolinaLaw
- Call 919-962-HELP (4357)
- Visit help.unc.edu and click on the “chat” feature on the bottom right of the page for immediate assistance.

XIII. Law School Facilities and Amenities

Law School Building

The law school is located in Van Hecke-Wettach Hall at 160 Ridge Road. The 5th floor portico main entrance, the lower rotunda entrance, as well as the CDO Lobby entrance will be unlocked Monday-Friday 7:30AM-5:30PM. Students may access the building at any time by swiping their OneCard. The building is monitored by a security team. The security guard may be contacted by calling 919.883.7063.

Law Library

Fall 2022 (8/21-11/29) Law Library Hours

- Monday – Thursday: 8:00AM – 9:00PM*
- Friday: 8:00AM – 5:00PM
- Sunday: 12:00PM – 8:00PM*

*OneCard required for building access after 5:00PM and on Sundays.

Reference Desk Hours

- Monday – Friday: 10:00AM – 4:00PM

For questions and help, contact the Law Library Reference Desk via email at lawref@unc.edu; via phone at 919-962-1194; or via chat at https://library.law.unc.edu.

Lockers

During Orientation, all students will have the opportunity to request a locker for use throughout their time in law school. You must provide your own lock. If you have trouble getting into your locker or need your lock cut, please contact a member of the Student Development Office.
Study Room Reservations

Study rooms may be reserved in the law library. More details here. Reserve space on MyCarolinaLaw.

Wellness Room

A wellness room is in room 5084 for comfort and serenity. Proceed down the hall across from classroom 5048, pass both single-stall restrooms and turn right at the end of the hall. Continue to follow the hall, turn left at the corner, and the wellness room will be the third door on the right side.

Law Bar and Eating Area

The law school snack bar is open weekdays from 7:45-3:30pm and offers a variety of snacks, drinks, and lunch items from local vendors. Law students always have access to refrigerators, microwaves, toasters, vending machines, and seating in the eating area adjacent to the Law Bar. No law school classes are held from 12:00pm-1:00pm, providing students with a common area to eat lunch and attend student organization meetings and events.

All Gender Restrooms

Single stall restrooms are available for people of all gender identities

- Dean’s Suite: 5th floor, between the portico entrance and the stairs leading to the Rotunda. Enter the suite through the double doors, and the restroom door is at the end of the hall on the left. Open during regular business hours. The suite doors are accessible by push button, but the restroom does not have a push button for the door.

- 5th Floor Faculty Area: Access through the hallway directly across from room 5048 (to the left of the stairwell). Once you enter the hall, proceed past room 5054 and another faculty office, and the two restroom doors will be on the left. Always open, but they are not currently accessible for people with disabilities.

- Law Library: Two restrooms on the 1st floor of the law library. Access them from the elevator adjacent to the Reference Desk on the 4th floor. Exit the elevator, turn left and proceed down the far-left aisle to the end of the room. You must turn left down the hall to access both restrooms. They are both on the left side of the hall. Open during normal library hours. Not currently accessible for people with disabilities.

- Clinic Suite: Take the elevator near the faculty offices (5th floor) and the 4th floor WLRC suite (4th floor) down to the third floor and exit the building toward the athletic fields. You may also take the stairs near the CDO to the 3rd floor and exit the building towards the athletic fields. From the sidewalk, the Clinic suite is the last door on the left. The restrooms are on the left side of the office, and both of them are marked as gender neutral. The clinic suite has accessible entrances with push button access, but only one of the two gender-neutral restrooms has push button access.

*The clinic suite is locked, and access is dependent upon faculty and staff availability. As such, these restrooms are not fully accessible to those outside the clinic faculty, staff, students, and clients.

Showers

Showers are located in the 4th floor restrooms near the locker area. Please do not leave anything wet in your locker overnight.

Suit Closet

There is a suit closet in the locker area available for students needing to hang professional clothing for interviews or professional engagements. The closet is locked and accessible by OneCard.

Lactation Room

A lactation room is available for people who are nursing. If you need access to the lactation room, please speak with the front desk receptionist or a member of the Student Development Office.

Lost and Found

Lost and found is located at the reception desk near the 5th floor Rotunda entrance closest to the fountain.
XIV. Emergencies and Inclement Weather

Alert Carolina

The Alert Carolina system notifies community members by text and email of any present threats or weather emergencies. You may check their website to ensure that your phone number is properly registered. https://alertcarolina.unc.edu/

Emergencies

Emergency procedures are available on MyCarolinaLaw.

- Fire or Other Evacuations: In the event of an alarm, please exit the law school building calmly and quickly. Follow law school administrators to the natural areas around the law school and await permission to reenter.
- Tornados: In the event of a tornado warning, you may be directed to the Law Library’s lower floors or the Rumpus Room on the 3rd floor.
- Active Shooter: Responses to active shooter situations will vary depending on the circumstances. UNC Police makes recommendations and provides an educational video.

Adverse Weather

UNC Chapel Hill classifies adverse weather in three conditions:

- Condition 1: Reduced operations: University is open and classes will operate on a regular schedule.
- Condition 2: Suspended operations: Only open for mandatory operations. Classes cancelled.
- Condition 3: Closure: University closed. Classes cancelled.

In Adverse Weather, you will receive campus notices first but can anticipate further clarification from the law school shortly thereafter.
XV. Transportation and Parking

Buses

- Chapel Hill Transit, GoTriangle, and PART:

Chapel Hill Transit buses are free and serve UNC’s campus and most neighborhoods in Chapel Hill and Carrboro. Should you need to travel outside of Chapel Hill and Carrboro, GoTriangle and Piedmont Authority for Regional Transportation (PART) offer regional bus routes at low-cost fare. The bus stops closest to the law school are stops 3430 and 3431 on South Rd., and stop 3399 on Ridge Rd. Here is an interactive map of all bus routes serving UNC’s campus and a trip planning tool that includes all CHT and GoTriangle routes.

- Park and Ride lots:

Chapel Hill Transit serves several park-and-ride lots. The Friday Center lot is the most popular among law students because the FCX bus stops at 3430 on South Rd. More information about park-and-ride can be found through UNC’s Commuter Alternatives Program. Students may register for this program starting July 24th. Chapel Hill Transit buses also allow bikes on buses.

- Robertson Scholars:

FREE express bus between Duke and UNC when classes are in session: https://robertson.express/

Parking

- Daytime Parking: Daytime parking permits for campus lots are generally not available for first year law students. 2L and 3L students have an opportunity to request a space in the lottery during the summer prior to the academic year. 1L students may enter the parking lottery waitlist beginning on July 17th but are unlikely to receive a space.

- Weeknight Parking: A weeknight parking permit is required for campus lots on Monday-Thursday from 5:00pm-7:30am. This permit is free, but students who do not already have a daytime parking permit must register.

- Weekend Parking: Unless signs indicate otherwise, parking is available in campus lots without a permit from 5:00 pm Friday until 7:30 am Monday.

- Hardship parking: The law school administers a hardship parking process for students with significant family or commute-related hardships. The application will be sent to your UNC email address in late July. More information is available on the law school website.

- Accessible Parking: To receive accessible parking, students must submit the Medical Mobility Accommodation Application with the accompanying Health Care Professional Statement for Transportation and Parking Accommodations Committee (TPAC) review. An interim accommodation may be made while TPAC reviews the application for permanent assignment. Students are required to apply for and purchase the appropriate permit to park in the spaces reserved for mobility impaired employees and students. After 5 p.m., UNC-D permits are honored in UNC-D designated spaces throughout campus. A step-by-step guide through the application process can be found here.

If you are aware of additional information that would benefit students, please contact a member of the Student Development Office.