

JOHN RANKIN MCARTHUR

320 Old Oaks Lane
Glasgow, Virginia 24555
(919) 971-1716

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Troutman Sanders LLP (2015 - 2020)

Of counsel - strategic advice in the public utility and energy sectors

Duke University, Sanford School of Public Policy (Spring 2017, 2019, 2020)

Adjunct Professor, Electric Power and Climate Change

University of North Carolina School of Law (Spring 2018, 2020)

Adjunct Professor, Electricity and Renewable Energy Finance

Duke Energy Corp. (NYSE: DUK) (2013 - 2014)

Consultant - legal, regulatory and policy advice to multi-state electric utility

Truveon Corp. (2013 - 2016)

Board of Directors - energy efficiency start-up company

Progress Energy Corp. (2001 - 2012)

Senior management positions including Executive Vice-President, Corporate Relations, General Counsel, and Board Secretary

North Carolina Governor's Office (2000 - 2001)

Senior Policy Advisor - Oversight of strategic initiatives, policy, press, scheduling and legal counsel functions

General Electric Company (1997 - 2000)

Director, State Government Affairs - Government affairs oversight in Southeastern United States

North Carolina Department of Justice (1993 - 1997)

Chief Counsel - Oversight of legal policy, opinions, legislative and press functions and supervised public utility, consumer, health care and environmental protection issues. Participated in negotiations leading to the national tobacco litigation settlement

Hunton & Williams (1982 -1992)

Partner (April 1989 - December 1992), Associate (September 1982 - March 1989) - A broad-based practice focused on a variety of litigation, governmental, regulatory and commercial matters with a multinational law firm

Judge Sam J. Ervin, III, U. S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit (1981-1982)
Law Clerk - Researched and drafted bench memoranda and opinions

EDUCATION

University of South Carolina School of Law, J.D., with Honors May, 1981
Editor-in-Chief, South Carolina Law Review, Order of the Coif, Wig and Robe, Outstanding Graduate Student Award

Davidson College, Davidson, N.C., B.A., cum laude, May, 1977
Honors Program in Philosophy and Political Science

CIVIC, COMMUNITY AND PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Chair, North Carolina Education Lottery Commission (2006 - 2009)

Reactor Technology Program for Utility Executives, M.I.T. (June 2006)

Chair, Teach for America Eastern North Carolina Advisory Board (2006 - 2008)

Global Transpark Foundation Board of Directors (2003 - 2009)

Easter Seals Society of North Carolina Board of Directors (2002 - 2005)

Secretary, North Carolina Commission on Business Laws and the Economy (1995 - 1997)

PUBLICATIONS AND SEMINAR PRESENTATIONS

Panelist, Implications of McCroory v. Berger, - N.C. Supreme Court case declaring certain regulatory commissions unconstitutional based on legislative appointments (April 2015)

Alternative Dispute Resolution, Public Law for Public Lawyers (September 1993)

Regulatory Compliance, N.C. Business Law Section (April 1991)

Governmental Regulatory Compliance and the Business Process, Business Law
Institute, N.C. Bar Association (April 1989, February 1991)

Walter Mondale's Secret Weapon? The Wall Street Journal, September 24, 1984